ing, May 17th, at 7:30. "Work."

Mrs. T. W. Melchor has returned from Chicago, where she has been visiting her son L. W. for some time.

A concert will be given by the Women's Mission society of the Free Baptist church next Sunday evening. Subject: India.

Editor Glidden, of the Grange Visitor, got badly "left" last Friday. His horse went home and left A. C. to get home as best he could.

Wint. Reynolds says that the statement that he is going extensively into the carpet rag trade is a base fabrication, from the ground up.

Master Clarence Quick has been trying a diet of broken lamp chimneys, goblets and other articles of glassware.
We learn that he is thriving.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bierce, of Kalamazoo, were in town last week. They were accompanied by Mr. Chubbuck, Mr. B's half-brother, from Omaha.

A concert will be in attendance upon the Northern Van Buren teachers' association Saturday next, and therefore not at home to teachers on that day.

The board of review, consisting of Supervisor Killefer, C. P. Rawson and P. H. Gremps, will meet at the office of the supervisor on Monday, May 27th.

Elvin Rowland, of Charlotte, made a brief visit to friends in town last week.

Local fishermen are taking some fine strings of black and calico bass from the Landphere pond now-a-days.

Chas. T. Stevens was home Monday on business, returning to Battle Creek same evening. Charley is looking well and says his health is improving.

Dan, Spicer has purchased the old John McKinney farm of 160 acres, on the Valley road south of Lawton, and Harry Dopp goes over to fix it up.

A memorial sermon will be preached by Rev. H. A. Pallister, at the Disciple church, on Sunday, May 26th. Brodhead Post G. A. R. will attend in a body.

Lawton, Hartford and Gobleville have new postmasters, and the Advance-Reflector predicts a new one for Bangor within a month. It's getting hot, isn't it, Pete?

Miss Nellie Qua has returned from her visit at Gaylord. Her grandmother, Mrs. Samuel Qua, and Miss Daisy Carpenter, a young lady friend, accompanied her home.

Contracts are let and work will commence at once on the Dowagiac water works. Exclusive of wells and connections, the expense is $34,335. A Detroit firm has the contract.

Miles Lucas, perceiving the necessity of brain food for the NORTHERNER pencil driver, sent around a basket of fine specimens of the finny tribe the other day. Thanks, Miles.

Next Tuesday evening Mrs. Wesley Young will entertain the Christian church social. The Y. L. M. B. will furnish a literary programme. Everybody respectfully invited.

A well-merited drubbing was administered by one brother-in-law to another in Waverly township one day last week, but as the particulars will be given by correspondents, we will let them tell the story.

Hayes went over to Chicago last week to collect rent on the shot tower. They wouldn't pay, and Fenner says it is to be taken down. Bert Cole will explain the whys and wherefores of this proceeding.

The "old folks" of Airmen will picnic at the home of A. S. Downing on Thursday, May 26d. An invitation is extended to residents of adjoining towns, and the fact of their being "young folks" will exclude none.

Geo. W. Taft, son of Rev. L. B. Taft, pastor of the First Baptist church of this place, has but recently graduated from the Rochester, N. Y., theological seminary, and is already under appointment as missionary to Japan.

The Loranger Theatre Company, now playing an engagement at Longwell's opera house, is one of the finest troupes which has visited Paw Paw in a long time. This (Wednesday) evening their last appearance. Don't fail to attend.

Frank VanDyke has brought his wife home from the insane asylum, but it is questionable in the minds of the neighbors of the unfortunate woman whether it is safe for her to be at liberty, as her mind is in a very unsettled condition.

Mrs. Alma Jordan, aged 86 years, died at the residence of her sister, Mrs.
Elizabeth Bowditch, on Friday last. The funeral services were conducted by Rev.
Harvey at the house Saturday afternoon, and the remains were buried at Prospect Hill.

Solomon B. Hagar, a widely known and highly respected farmer, for many years supervisor of his township and a local politician of prominence, died at his home in Hamilton, this county, last Saturday, of typhoid pneumonia, aged 64 years.

Paw Paw has another lively stable, making the third in town. W. H. Dansby is proprietor of the enterprise, and we learn that his outfit is entirely new.
We hope there will be plenty of business for all of them, for they are all good fellows.

Last Saturday morning R. Irving Latimer was sentenced to the state prison for life for the murder of his mother.
His nerve stood by him to the last, and he smiled and bowed to the sheriff as the prison doors swung to, shutting him in forever from the world.

The north pier at the entrance to the South Haven harbor is to be extended sixty feet, and work has already commenced. It is claimed that this extension will preclude the possibility of a bar forming from the action of north and northwest winds, which does to a certain extent now.

Longwell Bro's are just receiving a new lot of wall paper, having made a clean sweep of the immense stock they put in early this spring. They are carrying forward nine different jobs of painting, which goes to show that they are well equipped in this line, as well.
Their line of window shades is simply elegant.

The Decatur Republican came out last Wednesday, (the first issue of the Messrs Rowland,) materially altered and improved in make-up and general appearance. When the new management once got settled into harness, we have no doubt they will furnish a paper which will be a credit to themselves and acceptable to its patrons.

Porter A. Dean, a prominent, well-to-do farmer of this township, died at his home on Friday morning last, aged about 60 years, from consumption. The funeral services were conducted by Rev.
H. A. Pallister on Sunday, and the burial was at the Wilday cemetery. Quite a number of the G. A. R. attended, deceased being a member of that organization.

A new time table went into effect on the T. & S. H. railroad on Monday last.
Trains leave Paw Paw as follows: For Lawton--6:10 a. m., 12:15, 2:40 and 9:10 p. m. For South Haven, 6:50 a. m. For Hartford, 3:40 p. m. Trains on the Central leave Lawton as follows: Going east--1:57 and 7:49 a. m. and 12:40 and 9:30 p. m. Going west--1:57 and 6:33 a. m. and 3:16 and 4:43 p. m.

John O'Brien, aged 82 years, died while sitting in a chair at a window at his home in Bangor on Tuesday of last week. The funeral was from St. Mary's church in this place on Thursday, Rev.
Fr. O'Rourke officiating, and the remains were buried in the Catholic cemetery.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, in Paw Paw, on Saturday evening, May 11th, by Rev. L. D. Boynton, Will A. Young and Cora Z. Holt, all of Paw Paw. The groom is in the employ of the Cleveland Bay Horse Co., and Messrs. Geo. E. Breck and G. E. Gilman, as officers of that company, presented the young couple with a check for a handsome sum towards "setting themselves up." They commence housekeeping at once at the fair grounds.

"Little" Charley Stevens is a genius, and probably the youngest inventor of the day. He is fifteen years old and has perfected a burglar and fire alarm device which has stood the test of careful scrutiny by expert patent solicitors; has filed a caveat in the patent office, and sold the invention last Monday to Dr. A. W. Hendrick for $1,100. He has several other inventions under consideration which are, to say the least, curious. That lad will be heard from later.

Rev. David Root, for the past forty years a missionary in Africa, gave a very interesting talk on the subject of missions at the First Baptist church last Sunday evening. The pastors of the other churches had taken up their appointments and the house was well filled with interested listeners. At some points in his address the reverend gentleman seemed to yearn for a word or two of Booroboolo-gha with which to round off a sentence, but he managed to struggle through in English.

George Delong, of Arlington, was in town Monday to see if he could get any trace of or assistance in finding his daughter, who had eloped Saturday night with her cousin, Arthur Delong.
She had retired to her room at the usual bed hour Saturday evening, but in the morning the room was found to be unoccupied, the window up, and a note on the dressing table announcing her departure for Chicago. There are too many theories and surmises afloat to give publicity to any of them.

On Wednesday of last week Mrs.
Dorcas A. Chubbuck was buried at Arlington. Deceased was the mother of Eli Bierce, our former townsman, now residing in Kalamazoo. Mrs. Chub-buck was on a visit to the state of New York, was taken sick and died there on the 5th inst. Mr. Bierce was telegraphed to and went on to New York and brought his mother's remains home for burial.
Deceased was 62 years of age, had been a resident of Arlington since 1844, and was a lady very highly esteemed. She leaves five children, all grown.

For the school year commencing on the first Monday in September next, the following teachers have thus far been engaged: Superintendent, S. E.
Higgins, re-elected; salary, $1,000.
Principal, vacant. Assistant, Miss Alice Harvey; salary, $400. Grammar school, Miss Mary Bryar, re-elected; salary, $400. Second intermediate, Miss Cora Hinckley; salary, $320. First intermediate, Miss Cora Ruggles, re-elected; salary, $320. Second primary, vacant.
First primary, Miss Kate Ocobock, re-elected; salary, $320. The present school year closes June 27th.

The only link that was missing in the chain of evidence against Latimer has been discovered. David Wood of Jackson has stated to Deputy Sheriff Evan that he met R. Irving Latimer on the morning of the murder of his mother, at the corner of Main and Blackstone streets, coming from the direction of the Latimer house. He walked with him to near Mechanic street, where Latimer went into an alley. Wood says he didn't come out and state this fact before for fear he would be detained as a witness. Mr. Wood is a reputable man, stands high in masonic circles, and travels for Haennie, the brewer.

The sixth annual convention of the Paw Paw, Decatur and Lawrence S. S. association will be held at the Christian church, in Paw Paw, on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The first session will be at 2 p. m. Wednesday, and will open with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. W. J. Hathaway.
Rev. Harvey will pronounce the "Words of Welcome." Rev. Taft will read a paper on "How to Promote Reverence for the Lord's Day," and "The Teacher and his Preparation" will be discussed by Rev. Pallister. In the evening Rev. A.
J. Gordon will address the convention.
Thursday, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. will be filled in with topics of interest to all workers.

A frightful accident occurred at Kalamazoo last Wednesday evening by which five ladies were hurled into eternity and two others badly injured. At 6:30 o'clock a street car, containing seven ladies and two men, was crossing the track of the Michigan Central railroad, when a switch engine dashed down upon it from the east at a high rate of speed, and the driver being unable to get the car out of the way, the helpless passengers were hurled to death. Following is the names of the killed: Mrs. M. E. Wattles, Mrs. Alexander Hadlock, Mrs. Geo. Smiley, Mrs.
Geo. Middleton, Miss Gertrude Tillotson, aged 16. Mrs. S. A. Gibson and Mrs. John Barnes were badly injured, but will recover.

We learn that some of our most prominent business men are moving in the matter of a public observance of Memorial day, and this is a move in the right direction. The members of the G. A.
R. have heretofore been left to do all that has been done towards commemorating the deeds of those who fell, as though they were the only ones benefitted by the sacrifices made, while the sturdy facts are that these very men who stand in their doors and make sport of the halting, decrepit procession of veterans as they march once a year to decorate the graves of their fallen comrades, owe their all to the heroism of these same men. Let us show the old vets that their self-sacrificing devotion to the flag is properly appreciated.
